SEE MORE Investing in improving the communication skills of your employees will improve your business SEE MORE Our goal is simple: To make you more effective communicate in all situations. Since the beginning of 2013, we have helped schools and university students, trainee doctors, real estate agents, auction workers, professionals and organizations to improve their communication and demonstration skills and voice use. Our focus is on tailoring programs to meet your needs. We provide specialist training for voice neutralization, voice coaching and interviews, as well as public speaking training for children and adults, either in small groups, one-on-one or in your workplace. The book Now I've worked with and referenced clients to Naanki for many years. Naanki's experience as a voice coach and communication specialist adds real value to the services we offer to both auction and real estate coaching. Naanki works with auctioneers of all levels to make sure they use their voice safely, as well as finely shutting down their delivery and communication style. It's a pleasure to work with her and she's been incredibly valuable to our business. Her enthusiasm and dedication to improving the communication skills of agents and auctioneers is inexorably Phil de Fegely, Director, de Fegely PTY LTD Naanki's services have been working for many years to help develop demonstration skills for junior doctors. A clear and articulate presentation is a vital clinical skill that has important implications for clinical care. Naanki has excellent expertise in this field and has helped our doctors in many aspects of presentation, including body language, intonation, enthusiasm for those whose English is a second language, as well as the organization of content. Our doctors have consistently provided feedback that these workouts were of enormous value. As a result of its introduction, we have seen the results of improving the level of communication skills and as a result included this component of physician training as a mandatory part of our A/Prof Darren training programme - Consortia Director Training Physician, Monash Health Dear Naanki, I wanted to tell you that after our presentation hearings, I won the award for best paper at the International Australasia Rescue Conference. I also had a lot of comments about my presentation and their Twitter friend loved the analogy of the pool. Despite being a senior lecturer at Monash University for 12 years, I have never had any formal training and criticism. I found our sessions very useful in refining my presentation style and reflecting on the smaller aspects of my presentation in order to ensure that the audience was as engaged as possible and to spread the message that I wanted to communicate. Thank you again for your help with my presentation. K. Eastwood, Senior Lecturer, Monash University Naanki - the demonstration skills training that you delivered to our PhD students was incredibly tailored, fun, and informative. Students left with appropriate, evidence-based strategies so that they could quickly register to prepare and deliver individual oral presentations, and were clearly impressed by your professionalism and enthusiasm for the subject area. Thank you very much for helping to address this important skill with such professionalism, confidence and gusto. Program and Events officer, Monash University Institute of Graduate Research My daughter attended meetings with Naanki last year. I noticed a significant improvement in her confidence in meeting new people and her ability to project her voice. I can see that she benefited from her learned to communicate more effectively and was thrilled when she reached A+ in an English oral presentation at school last semester.
